Biography

I was born in Ankara. I graduated from Kırıkkale Science High School in 2006. After completing my bachelor's degree in Istanbul University Molecular Biology and Genetics department, I started my master's degree in the same department. I graduated from Marmara University Faculty of Medicine Histology and Embryology Department in 2016, which I started within the scope of the Lecturer Training Program in 2013. I am still continuing my PhD education in the same department.
